

Mrs. Austen Gray Gets a Divorce for Non-support

Newport Court Grants Decree, Mrs. Paul Fitz Simons Testifying in Wife's Behalf.

Special Despatch to THE NEW YORK HERALD. NEWPORT, R. I., Dec. 6.—Mrs. Austen Gray, well known in Newport and New York society, finally received her divorce today in the Superior Court here, Justice Chester W. Barrows presiding. The hearing, which was entirely by deposition, took exactly ten minutes and the decree was granted for non-support, that being the only charge presented. Mr. Gray was represented by attorney, and when the court awarded the custody of the two children to the mother the lawyers obtained the consent of the court to leave that matter open. It was intimated that there were some technicalities about visit arrangements for the children to the father to be straightened out. Among those making depositions for Mrs. Gray were Mrs. Paul Fitz Simons, formerly Mrs. French Vanderbilt, and a lifelong friend of Mrs. Gray. In her affidavit she stated that Mr. Gray had not supported his wife for several years, although he could have done so. The deposition of Mr. William Appleton Burnham of Boston, father of Mrs. Gray, was to the same effect. Mrs. Gray said she was married August 24, 1904, in Grace Church, Providence, and has lived in Newport the last four years and voted here. Nothing has been contributed by her husband for her support, she said, for the last two years. She received an allowance from her mother-in-law, Mrs. John Clinton Gray. She and Mr. Gray separated three years ago and she has since been living with her mother-in-law. Mrs. Gray was Alice Munroe Burnham. Last summer she occupied the Pinard cottage No. 2, and her children, Miss Marion Gray and Austen Townsend Gray, were at the time the young people's tennis tournaments at the Casino.

WEBB-WILLIAMS.

Miss Virginia Williams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George H. Williams of 151 Central Park West, was married last evening to Mr. Burton Mallory Webb in All Angels Church by the Rev. Dr. S. DeLancey Townsend. The reception was held in the Columbia Yacht Club. Mr. Webb is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Dudley Webb of 383 Park avenue, and was graduated from Princeton in 1921. The bride was attended by Miss Marlon Bush of Buffalo as maid of honor and by Miss Dorothy Newell, Evelyn Rishon and Lucetta Vanderbilt as bridesmaids. Grace and Jean Pennington were flower girls. Mr. E. H. Tarnshaw, Jr., of New York, and Mrs. Harold H. H. Eckford, of Paul Williams, of New York, were ushers. Mr. and Mrs. William Wallace were ushers.

VOGEL-COSTER.

The marriage of Miss Edith Marie Vogel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Vogel, to James Stanhope Coster, of 64 West Ninety-fourth street, took place yesterday in the Church of the Blessed Sacrament. Mr. Donnelly, assisted by Mr. Gubler, performed the ceremony. The bride was given away by her father, who was her attendant. Miss Marguerite Dwyer, Mr. Pierre Dwyer was best man. The ushers were Messrs. C. Vogel, Joseph Murphy, Francis Walters and William Shannon. There was a reception in the Plaza.

MRS. COPPING IN BUSINESS.

Mrs. Cora Langdon Van Norden Copping, daughter of the late Warren Van Norden, banker, who went into business last spring, has moved to the Plaza Hotel, where she will continue her trade enterprise, opening today. In private life she is the wife of Arthur P. Copping. During the war she served two and a half years with the First Company of Scouts.

PLATT-KENT.

In the Little Church Around the Corner, East Twenty-ninth street, yesterday Miss Emily Kent, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kent of 135 West Fifty-eighth street, was married to Mr. Thomas A. Platt of New York, and Tuckahoe by the Rev. Dr. George C. Houghton.

ENGAGEMENTS ANNOUNCED.

Mr. T. E. Vernilya Smith of Princeton, N. J., has announced the engagement of his daughter, Miss Alison Moore Smith, to Mr. Charles Douglas MacDonald of Topham, Vt., son of the late Dr. and Mrs. Alexander E. MacDonald of New York. Mr. MacDonald was graduated from Columbia in 1919. Mr. and Mrs. Lincoln G. Hawn have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Hazel Esther Hawn, to Mr. Thomas A. Sperry, son of the late Thomas A. Sperry and Mrs. Kate Sperry Goodrich of 375 Park avenue. Miss Hawn, who is a graduate of Syracuse University and a member of the Delta Gamma sorority, is well known in Syracuse and Watertown.

PERMANENT SHAH'S TEST SOLD.

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 6.—The Shah of Persia test, said to have been built in the reign of Fath Ali Shah (1797-1834) and once the property of the late Shah, Nasserodin, was sold here yesterday at public auction for $3,000. The purchaser's name was not disclosed.

PERSONAL INTELLIGENCE.

NEW YORK.

Mrs. Amor Hollingsworth of Boston is at the Hotel Lorraine.

Mr. William Rockefeller has opened his house at 682 Fifth avenue.

Mrs. Raymond T. Baker, here from Lenox, joined friends for luncheon at the Ambassador Hotel yesterday.

Miss Belle Skinner will give the first of her Wednesday receptions, at 46 East Thirty-ninth street, to-day.

Miss Roberta Willard of Newport, R. I., is a guest of Mrs. John R. Drexel, Jr., of 39 East Sixtieth street.

Mr. and Mrs. Rufus L. Patterson have returned to 15 East Sixty-fifth street, from North Carolina.

The Misses Lisa and Mildred Stillman, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph F. Stillman, left Paris for New York yesterday.

Mrs. George W. Vanderbilt and Miss Cornelia Stuyvesant Vanderbilt joined several friends at luncheon at Pierre's yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. John E. Cowdin of Tuxedo Park, are at the Ambassador Hotel before opening their city home at 102 East Thirty-eighth street.

Mr. John Joyce Broderick, Commercial Counselor of the British Embassy in Washington, is the guest of Sir John and Lady Cadman at the Ambassador Hotel.

The Hon. Mrs. Rowland Leigh will go to Savannah, Ga., from Washington, where she is passing a few days, to be a guest of her sister, Mrs. William M. Low, over Christmas.

Mr. and Mrs. T. Saffron Taylor will pass the Christmas and New Year holidays with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Brown, in Baltimore.

Mr. and Mrs. George Iwaszky, who returned from Europe by the Olympic, will be at the Ritz-Carlton for an indefinite stay. Mr. and Mrs. Henry H. Rogers, who are returned by the Olympic, will be at the Ritz-Carlton for a short stay.

WASHINGTON.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry White have arrived and are at their house in R street.

Mrs. Willard Straight of New York is visiting Under Secretary of State and Mrs. Fletcher.

Mrs. Rene Viviani, who has been travelling for the last ten days, is expected in Washington to-day.

The Minister of the Netherlands, Dr. J. C. A. Everwijn, who is in New York, will return to Washington next week.

The Ambassador of Chile, Senor Mathieu, will return to Washington tomorrow from New York.

Miss Betty Connolly, niece of Baroness de Cartier, wife of the Belgian Ambassador, is at her home in New York to spend the holidays and later will return to the Belgian Embassy.

Dr. Conrad Jenny, the retiring Secretary of the Swiss Legation, and Mrs. Jenny will leave Washington to-day for New York, where they will sail Saturday for their home.

Mrs. Albert B. Fall will leave Washington the end of the week for her home in Three Rivers, N. M., to spend Christmas. The Secretary, who now is travelling, will join her there and they will return to Washington before January 1.

Senator and Mrs. Oscar Underwood

have cancelled their social engagements because of the death of his mother, Mrs. Frederick Virginia Underwood, in Birmingham, Ala. The Senator, who is an American delegate to the arms conference, left Washington Monday for Birmingham.

Gen. Diaz, commander in chief of the Italian Army, who has been travelling for several weeks, will return to Washington to-night and leave again tomorrow evening after attending a luncheon which Gen. Pershing is giving in his honor to-morrow. He will sail for Italy on December 10.

MRS. C. H. DUELL HAS DANCE.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Holland Duell, who were married at Meadowbrook, Pa., October 29 and who are living at the Ritz-Carlton, gave a dance last evening for one hundred and fifty guests.

The ballroom was decorated with flowers and palms. A Hawaiian orchestra played for the dancing. Preceding the dance "Tollable David," a motion picture, was shown, with musical accompaniment.

The guests included Mr. and Mrs. Norman de Witt, Mr. and Mrs. M. and Mrs. Pauling Podick, Mrs. Sumner Gorard, Mrs. Brady Harriman, Mrs. Craig Biddle, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Perin, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Drexel Biddle, Jr., Mr. Philip J. Roosevelt, Mrs. Biddle Duke, Messrs. Bertram D. N. Cragg, William Hale and Paul L. Kierman, Mrs. Marcus Daly, Mrs. James T. Terry, Miss Marie R. Lamarche, Miss Kile de Wolfe, Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Bonaparte, Mr. and Mrs. Sherwood Aldrich, Mr. and Mrs. Sydney J. Colford, Jr., Mr. W. Scott Cameron, Mr. Alfred N. Headlam, Mr. and Mrs. Holland S. Duell, Miss Emily Brown, Mr. and Mrs. W. Sackett Duell, Mr. and Mrs. Noel McKiver and Mr. Morgan J. O'Brien, Jr.

New Pictures of Princess Mary and Her Fiance

THE accompanying photographs of Princess Mary and her fiance, Viscount Lascelles, received last night from England, are the first to reach this country since the announcement on November 22 of the engagement of the only daughter of King George and Queen Mary to the son and heir of the Earl of Harwood.

Princess Mary was "snapped" in her happiest mood while visiting a nurse's home in Brighton a few days after the formal announcement of her engagement to a typical son of Britain was greeted with enthusiasm throughout the Empire.

John R. Drexel, Jr., Breaks Leg in a Cycle Accident

In yesterday's round of entertainment for debutantes the young women combined a typical party with their interest in charitable work. Such a utilitarian incident was a luncheon Mrs. William R. K. Taylor gave at her home, 32 West Fifty-fourth street, for her daughter, Miss Marjorie Taylor, after which the debutante and the other guests went to the Selwyn Theatre, where they served as program sellers at a matinee for the combined benefit of the New York Home for Homeless Boys and the Book Committee on Children's Libraries.

Other debutantes in the party were Mrs. Margaret Devereux Andrews, Lolla Baldwin, Mary Alice Baldwin, Betty Foster, Katharine Bright, Rosalie Paul Barclay and Alice Lee Henderson. Mrs. Sherwood Aldrich gave a luncheon yesterday for twelve in compliment to her sister, Miss Christine Thomas of Columbus, Ohio. Later she took her guests to the Selwyn matinee, as she was chairman of the entertainment committee.

The charity matinee formed one of the largest assemblies of the afternoon. The program was furnished by Miss Ruth Barker, a graceful classic dancer, who has appeared with the Bolshoi Ballet in London, and Carlos Salcedo, who played harp solos.

The surgeons discovered that he had not only received a compound fracture but that the right leg also had been badly crushed. No complications have set in, but several weeks will elapse before Mr. Drexel will be able to leave the hospital. This is the second accident Mr. Drexel has suffered in recent years. Two weeks before he married Miss Elizabeth Thompson, daughter of Mrs. De Forest Grant, in New York, on April 27, 1918, while riding over his ranch in Montana his horse fell and the same leg was injured.

Mr. Drexel is an ardent sportsman and one of his favorite pastimes is motorcycling. Ten days ago, while driving his motorcycle in the Princes Bay section of Staten Island, he was in collision with a trolley car and was thrown from his machine. He was unconscious when removed to the hospital, half a mile from the scene of the accident, and remained so some time. The guests included Mr. and Mrs. Norman de Witt, Mr. and Mrs. M. and Mrs. Pauling Podick, Mrs. Sumner Gorard, Mrs. Brady Harriman, Mrs. Craig Biddle, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Perin, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Drexel Biddle, Jr., Mr. Philip J. Roosevelt, Mrs. Biddle Duke, Messrs. Bertram D. N. Cragg, William Hale and Paul L. Kierman, Mrs. Marcus Daly, Mrs. James T. Terry, Miss Marie R. Lamarche, Miss Kile de Wolfe, Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Bonaparte, Mr. and Mrs. Sherwood Aldrich, Mr. and Mrs. Sydney J. Colford, Jr., Mr. W. Scott Cameron, Mr. Alfred N. Headlam, Mr. and Mrs. Holland S. Duell, Miss Emily Brown, Mr. and Mrs. W. Sackett Duell, Mr. and Mrs. Noel McKiver and Mr. Morgan J. O'Brien, Jr.

DEBUTANTES JOIN IN WELFARE WORK

Sell Programmes at Benefit After Luncheon.

In yesterday's round of entertainment for debutantes the young women combined a typical party with their interest in charitable work. Such a utilitarian incident was a luncheon Mrs. William R. K. Taylor gave at her home, 32 West Fifty-fourth street, for her daughter, Miss Marjorie Taylor, after which the debutante and the other guests went to the Selwyn Theatre, where they served as program sellers at a matinee for the combined benefit of the New York Home for Homeless Boys and the Book Committee on Children's Libraries.

Other debutantes in the party were Mrs. Margaret Devereux Andrews, Lolla Baldwin, Mary Alice Baldwin, Betty Foster, Katharine Bright, Rosalie Paul Barclay and Alice Lee Henderson. Mrs. Sherwood Aldrich gave a luncheon yesterday for twelve in compliment to her sister, Miss Christine Thomas of Columbus, Ohio. Later she took her guests to the Selwyn matinee, as she was chairman of the entertainment committee.

The charity matinee formed one of the largest assemblies of the afternoon. The program was furnished by Miss Ruth Barker, a graceful classic dancer, who has appeared with the Bolshoi Ballet in London, and Carlos Salcedo, who played harp solos.

The surgeons discovered that he had not only received a compound fracture but that the right leg also had been badly crushed. No complications have set in, but several weeks will elapse before Mr. Drexel will be able to leave the hospital. This is the second accident Mr. Drexel has suffered in recent years. Two weeks before he married Miss Elizabeth Thompson, daughter of Mrs. De Forest Grant, in New York, on April 27, 1918, while riding over his ranch in Montana his horse fell and the same leg was injured.

Mr. Drexel is an ardent sportsman and one of his favorite pastimes is motorcycling. Ten days ago, while driving his motorcycle in the Princes Bay section of Staten Island, he was in collision with a trolley car and was thrown from his machine. He was unconscious when removed to the hospital, half a mile from the scene of the accident, and remained so some time. The guests included Mr. and Mrs. Norman de Witt, Mr. and Mrs. M. and Mrs. Pauling Podick, Mrs. Sumner Gorard, Mrs. Brady Harriman, Mrs. Craig Biddle, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Perin, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Drexel Biddle, Jr., Mr. Philip J. Roosevelt, Mrs. Biddle Duke, Messrs. Bertram D. N. Cragg, William Hale and Paul L. Kierman, Mrs. Marcus Daly, Mrs. James T. Terry, Miss Marie R. Lamarche, Miss Kile de Wolfe, Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Bonaparte, Mr. and Mrs. Sherwood Aldrich, Mr. and Mrs. Sydney J. Colford, Jr., Mr. W. Scott Cameron, Mr. Alfred N. Headlam, Mr. and Mrs. Holland S. Duell, Miss Emily Brown, Mr. and Mrs. W. Sackett Duell, Mr. and Mrs. Noel McKiver and Mr. Morgan J. O'Brien, Jr.

MRS. HARDING HAS BOX PARTY FOR SYMPHONY

Entertains Wives of Foreign Dignitaries.

Special Despatch to THE NEW YORK HERALD. Washington, D. C., Dec. 6.—The wives of several of the foreign dignitaries now visiting here were guests to-day of Mrs. Harding, who entertained a box party at the National Theatre for the New York Symphony Orchestra concert. In the company were Lady Lee of Fareham, Mrs. Van Karsbeck, Mrs. Sze, Lady Borden and Miss Laura Harlan.

Sonator and Mrs. James W. Wadsworth, Jr., were hosts to-night at dinner. Their guests were asked to meet Lord Lee of Fareham and Lady Lee.

OBITUARIES.

ISSACHAR COZZENS.

Issachar Cozzens, head of the firm of I. Cozzens & Co., hosiery manufacturers of this city, died at his country home in New York, where he was Major-General commanding the National Guard. In the Spanish-American war he served with the 20th New York Infantry.

Following his appointment by President McKinley as Assistant Secretary of War under Secretary Root, he took charge of militia activities, and during the Spanish-American war he was in charge of the War Department. He resigned in 1903 because of ill health.

During the world war he was in Washington as director of military relief, Potomac Division, American Red Cross. He was head of the United States delegation to the International conference in Geneva in 1906 to revise the treaty of 1864, and was chairman of a National Guard commission appointed by Governor Hughes in 1907.

He was a trustee of Hamilton College, and was a member of many colonial societies. In 1911 to 1913 he was president of the State Hospital Commission. Col. Sanger's home was at Sangerfield, in Onondaga county. He leaves his wife, Mrs. Ethel Cleveland Sanger, two sons, William Cary, Jr., and Richard H. Sanger; two daughters, the Misses Mary and Lillian Sanger of Washington, and a sister, Mrs. Sanger, of 10 Montague terrace, Brooklyn.

MISS IDA LOUISE SUTLIFE.

Miss Ida Louise Sutlife, for eighteen years superintendent of the Long Island College Hospital Training School for Nurses, died yesterday in the Long Island College Hospital, Brooklyn, following an operation performed a week ago. She was 68 years old, and had been an invalid for two years.

OBITUARY NOTES.

FREDERICK W. LEE, 75, civil war veteran and formerly an employee of the Department of Water Supply, Gas and Electricity, died yesterday of paralysis at his home, 240 East Sixtieth street. He retired from city service about fifteen years ago. He leaves two sons.

DR. W. E. SAWYER, a physician connected for several years with the Shinn Health System, Inc., at 50 Broadway, died Monday at the home of his daughter, Mrs. J. D. Baxter, 224 East Fifty-second street, after an illness of several weeks. He was graduated from the Philadelphia College of Osteopathy. A brother, G. Arthur Sawyer, lives in Boston.

WILLIAM A. HOOKER. William A. Hooker, consultant in mining engineering and an instructor in geology at Columbia University, died Monday in his home at Farmington, Conn., in his seventy-sixth year. He was a member of the United States Geological Survey for the State of Ohio and the author of many reports on mines and mineral lands in the United States, Canada, and Mexico and Peru. He was a member of the engineering firm of Hooker & Lawrence.

FRED C. LEONARD. COUNSPORT, Pa., Dec. 6.—Fred C. Leonard, former Representative in Congress and for twelve years United States Marshal for the middle district of Pennsylvania, died here last night.

WILLIAM W. MERRILL. William Willis Merrill, member of the Produce Exchange since 1872, died yesterday in his home, 101 West Seventy-ninth street. He was born in the old

REBECCA PAULDING MADE.

Mrs. Rebecca Paulding Meade, daughter of the late Admiral Hiram Paulding and widow of Rear Admiral Richard W. Meade, died yesterday in her home at Huntington, L. I., of heart disease. She was a granddaughter of John Paulding, one of the captors of Major André, the traitor.

Mrs. Meade was well known in New York, Washington and Philadelphia. She was the author of a biography of her father, which was published under the title "Life of Hiram Paulding." She leaves four daughters, Mrs. Clara Broad, wife of Commander Broad of the United States Naval Reserve Force, Philadelphia; and the Misses Annie, Rebecca and Charlotte Meade, and one son, Richard W. Meade, who for many years was president of the Fifth Avenue Coach Company.

Funeral services will be held at St. John's Episcopal Church, Huntington, to-morrow morning. Burial will be in the Huntington Cemetery.

GERTRUDE LIVINGSTON HOYT. Miss Gertrude Livingston Hoyt, a member of one of the oldest New York families, died Monday in her home, 21 Washington square, of pneumonia, in her 66th year. The funeral will be held this forenoon at 11 o'clock in Grace Church, where she has been an active worker most of her life.

Miss Hoyt was a daughter of the late Lydie M. Hoyt, who married Gertrude Livingston, daughter of Maturin Livingston. Her grandfather on her father's side was Lydie Hoyt. Her country home is in Staatsburg, N. Y., which was established by her great-great-grandfather as the estate of Red Cross Court in Dutchess county before during and since the war. Miss Hoyt leaves a brother and sister, Gerald L. Hoyt and Mrs. William D. Morgan of New York.

LOST—Big value, with ladies' models. Made of linen, 52 1/2 in. between 5th and 6th ave., no use to one but every one. Kindly return to Mr. SCHNEIDER, 1570 46th st., Brooklyn.

LOST—Hand grip and two brief cases, from Chandler coupe, in front of Breton Hotel, Hotel, Broadway, 10th st., Monday evening. Liberal reward; no questions asked. Call J. A. Ryan, 803.

LOST—Liberal reward and no questions asked for the return of fitted dress suit case, left on sidewalk, 230 P. M. Return to front of 43rd East 7th st. to 40 Park av.

LOST—Brief case, tan, containing letters and papers, in front of Breton Hotel, 14th st., Saturday noon, December 3; suitable reward. Finder please communicate P. 2085 Herald.

LOST—At the Macdowell Club, Sunday night, fan, marabout feathers, mounted on amber stick. Reward $10.00. Return to Macdowell Club, 108 W. 55th st.

LOST—AT MOVIE LADY, ASTOR HOTEL, SATURDAY NIGHT. ONE EMBROIDERED RING, PLATINUM MONTE, 8000. REWARD WILL BE PAID FOR RETURN TO HOPE HAMPTON, 1540 BROADWAY.

LOST—Lady's Diamond Horseshoe Pin, between 8th and 9th ave., 5th and Madison st. REWARD. Hotel Touraine, 9 Dec. 29th st.

LOST—Near 605 4th or 410 Park av., December 6, 1921. A small black and white dog, about 10 weeks old, with a white patch on its chest and neck chain, especially valued by the owner because of associations; liberal reward. Return to 410 Park av., 4th floor. Reward $10.00.

LOST—Identification bracelet, inscribed "Miss Mary E. Root at the Algonquin Hotel, 120 Broadway, N. Y. C. No. 7949. Reward. Murray Hill 8700.

LOST—Reward for return of diamond and another ring, on 6th ave., 44th-55th st. Reward $100.00. Call 44th-55th st. Murray Hill 7751. O'BRYEN.

LOST—Recent pin, pearls, diamond, sapphires, between Macy's and Hotel McAlpin, near Madison, 1214 East 15th st. Reward $10.00. Return to 1214 East 15th st. Reward $10.00.

LOST—Diamond bar pin, Friday, Fordham station, Booth Street; reward. SCHWARTZ, 1214 East 15th st. Reward $10.00.

LOST—Gold wrist watch, with monogram "E. E." in the 80's. Reward. 325 W. 14th st.

LOST—Shake ring, 4 bands, one diamond; suitable reward. J. M. H. 7 West 41st.

LOST—Saturday, Brown, small chain bracelet with earrings, on 6th ave., 44th-55th st. Reward $10.00. Return to 44th-55th st. Reward $10.00.

LOST—Diamond and diamond bracelet, containing about 100 diamonds, lost December 4, vicinity of Broadway and 42d st. BLACK, STARR & PROSE, 5th ave. and 48th st.

LOST—Platinum and diamond bracelet, containing about 100 diamonds, lost December 4, vicinity of Broadway and 42d st. BLACK, STARR & PROSE, 5th ave. and 48th st.

LOST—Platinum and diamond bracelet, containing about 100 diamonds, lost December 4, vicinity of Broadway and 42d st. BLACK, STARR & PROSE, 5th ave. and 48th st.

LOST—White Remy hair, female; color with license number; brown left hair; lost Thursday in 6th ave., shopping district, or vicinity of 42d st. Return to BLACK, STARR & PROSE, 5th ave. and 48th st.

LOST—Young couple, male, male, vicinity Broadway, 10th st.; license No. 43379; reward. HEWLETT, 213 West 100th. August 29, 1921.

LOST—Prince Charles spaniel, black and white, lost from home near Madison. Return to 1214 East 15th st. Reward $10.00.

LOST—Black shepherd dog, brown markings, vicinity Morrisville Heights; reward. Tel. 5100 Morrisville. Age 4.

LOST—Small dog. Owner may have by fully describing and paying for advertisement. J. R. PARKER, 21 Russell Place, Brooklyn. Reward $10.00.

LOST—Husky dog, lost from home near Madison. Return to 1214 East 15th st. Reward $10.00.

LOST—Male cat, fawn color, brown seal points, near Gramercy Park. Phone Gramercy 6577.

LOST—Male cat, fawn color, brown seal points, near Gramercy Park. Phone Gramercy 6577.

LOST—Male cat, fawn color, brown seal points, near Gramercy Park. Phone Gramercy 6577.

LOST—Male cat, fawn color, brown seal points, near Gramercy Park. Phone Gramercy 6577.

DIED.

BERMAN—Sudden, December 5, Charles A. Berman, 5277 Grand av., beloved father of Alice A. Berman and Sarah H. Berman, in his 70th year. Funeral services Wednesday, December 8, at 10 o'clock, at the Central Avenue Church, 1830th st. and Grand av., Bronx. Interment Huntington, L. I.

BLAUVELT—Elvira S., widow of David J. Blauvelt, died Sunday, December 5, at her residence, 201 West 122d st., Wednesday, December 7, 10 A. M. Interment at Nyack, N. Y.

BUCKLEW—S. Matilda, at Jamesburg, N. J., widow of Isaac S. Bucklew, December 5, in the 91st year of her age, at her residence. Notice of funeral later.

COOKMAN—On Monday, December 5, 1921, at his home, Englewood, N. J., Charles Howard Cookman, son of the late John and Margaret Howard Cookman. Funeral services will be held at Englewood Methodist Church, Englewood, N. J., on Wednesday, December 7, 1921, at 10:45 A. M. Burial in the cemetery at Englewood, N. J. Interment at West Laurel Hill, Philadelphia. Kingston and Tonawanda, N. Y., Wilmington (Del.) papers please copy.

COPPUTT—William Henry, on Monday, December 5, 1921, in his 77th year, son of the late John and Rebecca Copcutt. Funeral services will be held at St. Bartholomew's Church, Park avenue and 51st st., at 10 o'clock, Wednesday, December 7, 1921. Boston papers please copy.

DAY—At White Plains, N. Y., December 5, L. Ethel Day, for many years a faithful member of the office staff of the Board of Missions of the Episcopal Church. Funeral services at Calvary Church, 4th av. and 1st st., N. Y. C., on Wednesday, December 7, 1921. Boston papers please copy.

DE ACOSTA—Miguel Hernandez de Alba, daughter of the late Rafael Hernandez and Rita de Alba and wife of the late Ricardo de Alba, died at her home, 142nd st. and Broadway, on Monday, December 5, 1921, at 10 o'clock. Funeral services at St. Mary's Church, 142nd st. and Broadway, on Wednesday, December 7, at 10 o'clock. Interment private. Madrid, Paris and Havana papers please copy.

DORAN—John, beloved brother of Harriet and the late Michael J. Doran. Funeral services at St. Mary's Church, 142nd st. and Broadway, on Wednesday, December 7, at 10 o'clock. Interment private. Madison, N. Y., papers please copy.

ELURIDGE—Sudden, December 3, 1921, at New France, Commodore Frank H. Eluridge, U. S. Navy, retired, Washington (D. C.) and Hartford (Conn.) papers please copy.

FICHER—Johanna C., mother of Ferdinand J. Ficher, on December 4, in her 80th year. Funeral Wednesday, December 7, 10 o'clock, St. Mary's Church, 142nd st. and Broadway, New West Brighton, Staten Island. Interment Greenwald.

GEIS—At Rahway, N. J., on December 4, 1921, Louis J. Geis, beloved father of Lena and the late Francis Geis. Funeral services at St. Mary's Church, 142nd st. and Broadway, on Wednesday, December 7, at 10 o'clock. Interment private. Madison, N. Y., papers please copy.

GOLDBERG—At 1 West 125th st., on December 5, aged 81 years, Isaac, husband of the late Yetta, and devoted father of Julius, William Samuel, Isaac J. and Carolyn Goldberg. Funeral from the chapel of Saul A. Rosenthal, 139 West 125th st., on Wednesday, December 7, at 2 P. M. Detroit (Mich.) papers please copy.

HARRY—Frances, beloved mother of Louis, Harry, Theodore, Isa, Charles, Joseph, Ernest and Hyman Hoff and Leonora Weiss, deceased, in her 74th year. Funeral services Thursday morning, December 8, at 10 o'clock at Synagogue B'nai Jehoshua, 23rd and 1st ave., New York City.

HEIN—Congregation B'nai Jehoshua: Members and seafarers are respectfully requested to attend the funeral services of Mrs. Frances Hein, a member of our congregation for many years, on Thursday, December 8, 1921, at 10 o'clock, at our temple, 23rd to 24